

LPC/LCPC Application Process

Steps to applying to the NCE (for LPC) exam

- 1.) After graduation, apply to the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (IDFPR) for approval ($150).
 - a.) Print application here: <https://www.idfpr.com/renewals/apply/forms/pc.pdf>
 - i.) Obtain from ICSW a list of the course descriptions/numbers.
 - ii.) Submit pg. 15 to ICSW to complete.
 - iii.) Obtain a hard copy of an official transcript from ICSW
- 2.) Once you're approved by IDFPR (timeline: 8-12 weeks) you need to apply to Continental Testing Services (CTS) ($98)
 - a.) Find form here:
<https://continentaltestinginc.com/product/illinois-178-national-counselor/>
 - b.) If you need accommodations to test, you send in this form to CTS:
<https://www.idfpr.com/renewals/APPLY/FORMS/F1766Bts.pdf>
 - c.) CTS does not email approvals. You will need to check your status at <https://continentaltestingservices.net>.
- 3.) Once you're approved by CTS, you apply to the NBCC ($275)
 - a.) Create a Gateway Account at <http://my.nbcc.org>.
 - b.) Go to the Applications tab and choose State Licensure Examination.
 - c.) Fill out the form and submit payment online.
 - d.) There is a section of the form that asks about accommodations.
- 4.) Once you're approved by NBCC, they'll email you a link from PearsonVUE where you can schedule a time to test

Steps to applying to the NCMHCE (for LCPC) exam

- 1.) Once you have reached "the equivalent of two years"* of supervised work experience, apply again to IDFPR for approval to take the NCMHCE exam
 - a.) Print application here <https://www.idfpr.com/renewals/apply/forms/pc.pdf>
 - b.) "One year of experience shall be a maximum of 1680 clock hours obtained in not less than 48 weeks, including 960 clock hours of direct face to face service to client," found here:
<https://www.ilga.gov/commission/jcar/admincode/068/068013750B01300R.html>
 - c.) Your supervisor will need to sign off on your hours. They sign and seal their portion of the application in an envelope, which you can paperclip to your larger application

2.) You'll need to have the NBCC send your scores from the NCE exam to the state (IDFPR) $65

a.) Find form here:

https://www.cce-global.org/Assets/StateLicensureCandidates_score-verification-form.pdf

3.) Apply to Continental Testing Services (CTS) $98
